

MICHELE S. GOOCH

motivational speaker and transition guru

Michele is a listener. She hears people and understands which means she props deep into what matters most. She is about to present deep insight that leaves people chewing on the content long after she's gone. Even though she dives deep, her sense of humor gives great moments of release.

Michele is a retired pastor with over 20 years of experience in all facets of leadership development, building inspirational communities and personal growth.

She is a certified coach and trained in behavioral analysis with the DISC profile—the leading personal assessment tool to improve work productivity, teamwork and communication.

She coaches successful, resourceful individuals and teams in transition to understand their unique design and translate that into a meaningful, purposeful life. With a BA degree in Psychology from Howard Payne University and a MA in Marriage and Family Counseling from Southwestern Seminary, Michele has been able to combine her formal education with her passion for seeing people succeed in order to help clients manifest their best life.
