

MICHELE S. GOOCH

motivational speaker and transition guru

Michele is a listener. Because she hears people's struggles and victories, she is able to communicate God's word straight into their situation. Her own struggles and victories instantly connect her to her audience. People experience a real and personal encounter with God when the message speaks to their own stories and current situations. Michele is able to uncover deep insight that leaves people chewing on the content long after she's gone. Even though she dives deep, her sense of humor gives great moments of release.

Michele is a retired pastor with over 20 years of experience in all facets of leadership development, building inspirational communities, personal growth and biblical study. Through her business, LIFE by Design, she coaches, teaches and trains individuals and teams to live and lead from their God-given design. With a BA degree in Psychology from Howard Payne University and a MA in Marriage and Family Counseling from Southwestern Seminary, Michele has been able to combine her formal education with her passion for seeing people live and lead from their design.
